

Burswood working to recruit people with disability

On 12 December, Burswood formed a partnership with WorkFocus Australia and the National Disability Recruitment Coordinator, committing to increasing employment opportunities for people with disability within our workforce.

Burswood signed a Memorandum of Understanding with our new partner, and Burswood looks forward to working closely with the NDRC to implement this important program, providing meaningful and rewarding positions for people with a disability across the business.

